Distance Learning (DL) ESL Study-at-Home Online Free!

Fall Quarter 2022

*Beginning through Advanced Levels *

Burlington English is an interactive, self-paced, multi-level English series that focuses on improving pronunciation and comprehensibility of English learners with practice in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Many English courses for various careers are available.

Azar Grammar is an interactive English grammar course in three levels, Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced.

Project Success My English Lab is a multi-level work skills preparation class with videos. Each level focuses on a different work topic, including healthcare, hospitality, higher education, retail sales, and business.

Students who are unable to attend in-person or zoom classes weekly are encouraged to enroll.

You can study these online courses anywhere, anytime. Students who have a current, valid CASAS or placement test will get a zoom link for orientation.

Your teacher will be helping you by email and during weekly Zoom Office Hours.

Program Requirements

To Register:

- Fill out the Fall Quarter ESL Interest Form.
- Choose your Placement Testing appointment.
- Come to school to take a placement test.
- If you are not able to come to school, choose this option on the Fall Quarter Interest Form.
- Tell us which of the DL Courses you want to take.
- You will be registered in a DL class.
- Your DL teacher will send you a Zoom Invite to an online orientation meeting with date and time.
- Click the meeting link on time. Wait in the Zoom waiting room - the teacher will let you in.

To Be Successful:

- Study in your course 5-7 hours a week.
- Complete your assigned course in the Fall Quarter.
- Achieve at least 80% accuracy average for all exercises combined.
- Attend your teacher's office hour on Zoom.
- Read and answer your teacher's emails & ask questions.
- Give yourself enough practice to increase your English fluency and accuracy
- Take a CASAS Post-Test at the end of the Fall quarter to measure your progress
